THT010416 Z220	Biblical Theology	English	BA/BS	winter	2.5.	30			Prof. Emil Traytchev Stoyanov	traytchev@theo.uni-sofia.bg

Short description of the course (in the language of instruction):

The discipline “Biblical Theology” is aimed at acquainting students with the richness of revealed by God truths and exalted ideas in the Old Testament, which by succession pass to the New Testament and fertilize through the centuries the spiritual culture of the Christian peoples. Emphasis is placed on fundamental biblical themes, such as monotheism - polytheism, the revelation of God's name to the man, the theology of creation, Israel's traditions, angelology - demonology, the concept of the law, faith, messiahism, sin, eschatology in the Old Testament and theology of the temple, which are analyzed in a traditional Orthodox-Biblical spirit. In this way is strengthening the biblical-theological view that the Old Testament has an eternal significance not on its own, but only in the light of the New Testament good news.

THT010416 Z111	The History of the New Testament Era	English	BA/BS	winter	2.5	30			Prof. Emil Traytchev Stoyanov	traytchev@theo.uni-sofia.bg

Short description of the course (in the language of instruction):

The Subject of the discipline “The History the New Testament Era” is the Event of world significance that builds the essence and the framework of the Gospel and the early Church. By distancing themselves from the actual theological treatment, with the help of inductive and casual historical research, a historical view of the subject (18 century BC - 2 century AD) is given. At the same time, the theological point of view is implicitly implied, given the main theme in Christology: “The Word became flesh”, when “the time had fully come” (John 1:14, Galatians 4:4). Attention is focused on the cultural and religious significance of the restoration of Judaism after the captivity in Babylon (587/6-538 BC) and the beginning of the Persian hegemony (538-331 BC). In the view of the Jews' struggle against Hellenism, an overview of the rule of the Hellenistic rulers (331-142 BC) is made, focusing in particular on the political magnificence of the Kingdom of the Hasmoneans (142-63 AD). The Roman period is thoroughly examined until the beginning of the political catastrophe of Judaism (33-66 AD) and the fall of Jerusalem in 135 AD.

THT010416 Z435	Pastoral Theology	English	BA	winter	5	60			Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ivo Yanev	ivo.yanev@gmail.com

Short description of the course (done in the language of instruction):

Pastoral theology is the branch of practical theology concerned with the application of the study of religion in the context of regular church ministry. This approach to theology seeks to give practical expression to theology. Normally viewed as an “equipping” of ministers, practical theology is often considered to be more pragmatic than speculative, indeed, essentially a practical science. Hence its main interests are in those areas of theology which will aid clergy in ministry for the young people.
